Miami Weekend Shape Planner

Give the weekend a center, a flexible second lane, and a weather-safe way to get smaller.

USE THIS WHEN

You have two days available but weather, energy, or group appetite is too uncertain for a rigid itinerary.

Miami Weekend Shape Planner

Use the row that sounds most like the day in front of you. The goal is not maximum coverage. It is a cleaner first decision.

CHOICE	USE IT WHEN...
Day 1: clear anchor	Choose the strongest day you know the group wants.
Day 2: flexible lane	Use a district, meal, or weather-tolerant plan that can expand or shrink.
One weather backup	Keep the backup near the same zone when possible.

ONE RULE THAT SAVES THE PLAN

A flexible weekend is stronger than two ambitious days that both depend on perfect conditions.

Before You Go

CHECK THESE FIRST

- ☐ Choose the main day before the second day.
- ☐ Keep one half-day deliberately light.
- ☐ Place the weather backup now.
- ☐ Avoid repeating long cross-city transfers.
- ☐ Leave one optional block empty until the weekend starts.

IF THE DAY SHIFTS

If weather or energy drops, protect the best anchor and turn the second day into one easy district or meal.

FAST EXIT CUE

If the optional part starts to feel like obligation, cut it before relocating the whole outing.

WRITE THE PLAN

Day 1 anchor: _____

Flexible Day 2 lane: _____

Weather backup: _____
