Mixed-Energy Miami Group Planner

Build a day that still works for guests, parents, kids, and people running on different batteries.

USE THIS WHEN

The group can agree on going out, but not on pace, heat, walking, or how long the day should last.

Mixed-Energy Miami Group Planner

Use the row that sounds most like the day in front of you. The goal is not maximum coverage. It is a cleaner first decision.

CHOICE	USE IT WHEN...
Support-rich district	Choose shade, seating, bathrooms, food, and easy regrouping.
One obvious anchor	Give everyone the same center instead of multiple partial plans.
Short walking radius	Keep movement optional and easy to trim.

ONE RULE THAT SAVES THE PLAN

Support is part of quality. A prettier plan can still be the worse group plan.

Before You Go

CHECK THESE FIRST

- ☐ Name the lowest energy level in the group.
- ☐ Choose the shortest walking tolerance.
- ☐ Know the bathroom, shade, and food plan.
- ☐ Make one part optional from the start.
- ☐ Agree on the exit cue before the outing.

IF THE DAY SHIFTS

Cut the optional piece first. Do not move the whole group across the city to rescue ambition.

FAST EXIT CUE

If the optional part starts to feel like obligation, cut it before relocating the whole outing.

WRITE THE PLAN

Lowest energy level: _____

Our main anchor: _____

Optional piece we can cut: _____
