One Good Miami Evening Planner

Dinner, one nearby second move, and no unnecessary cross-city night route.

USE THIS WHEN

You want a real night out without spending the evening transferring between neighborhoods.

One Good Miami Evening Planner

Use the row that sounds most like the day in front of you. The goal is not maximum coverage. It is a cleaner first decision.

| CHOICE                | USE IT WHEN...                                                    |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dinner and walk       | Use one district where the after-dinner move is already nearby.   |
| Waterfront evening    | Choose atmosphere and a shorter scenic finish.                    |
| Art and social energy | Use Wynwood / Midtown when visual energy matters more than quiet. |

ONE RULE THAT SAVES THE PLAN

The second move should be close enough that it still feels like the same evening.

Before You Go

CHECK THESE FIRST

- ☐ Choose one district for the whole night.
- ☐ Decide whether dinner or the after-dinner move is the anchor.
- ☐ Make a reservation if timing matters.
- ☐ Know the parking or ride-share plan.
- ☐ Skip the second move if it starts feeling like work.

IF THE DAY SHIFTS

If timing slips, let dinner carry the night. A complete meal is better than two rushed stops.

FAST EXIT CUE

If the optional part starts to feel like obligation, cut it before relocating the whole outing.
